R. EMMETT STEWART, EDITOR.

The Blessings of Heaven still fall upon the fair crops of Oklahoma.

Pay tax on your city property or it will be sold in Sept. for tax.

The business men of Langston should form a board of trade at once, and get down to business.

Don't you think that Langston would make a much better sight for the capital than Guthrie?

Tax people of the several school districts, met in Guthrie a few days ago and made it quite warm for Miss Sarah Baworth and her dishonest districting. A. J.

The State department will be unable to ever make the people believe that it has not full power to make a rigid investigation of Consul Waller's case, and to release him from prison if circumstances justify such a course.

Even negro, who can should come to Oklahoma and buy him a good farm, before land goes beyond the poor man's reach, which will soon come if Oklahoma produces many such crops as she will this year.

Collins the colored man who shot and killed Ohi, the Princeton Student, at Trenton N. J. and was sent up for 20 years, would have been given a million years in h-1 had the same happened in any of the southern states, regardless of the circumstances.

The great question of finance, which was discussed between Horr and Harry has subside and the people of the different sections of the country, think now as they did before. The rich men of the east in common with England worship their yellow god, and those of the west their white goddess.

Now Gentlemen, we do not think it fair for two men to possess onto one youth, if either the Guthrie Lead or Capital wants to off with gloves and go after the pop, argue of that city it is alright, but for two big dollars to come down upon one small weekly is too bad.

DID HOLMES KILL LEDGER?

LEADER:—The LEADER likes nothing better than a square deal, with every man holding the correct number of cards and the chips on the table. With this sort of a deal in view, we believe the Holmes should be distributed. Every city and town in the country has been digging up the bones of bygone murders during the past few weeks and charging them to Holmes, with the result that the insurance swindler bids fair to be honored with a necktie party by the spirits of over 200 stiff. Oklahoma never lags behind in a crisis like this, and THE LEADER now emphatically serves notice, that since no one else seems willing to be responsible for the mysterious taking off of Frank Ledger, whose body was found in the Cottonwood river, Guthrie desires to swell the list and place the name of Ledger in the catalogue of Holmes' victims. The Ledger murder was the only one of the kind in the territory, it being equipped with all the sensational trills and accoustics of a London calium light drama. Since the local officer can find no one else to hang for the arual murder of the innocent young Englishman, why not allow Holmes to "sub" for the red murderer or murderers and expiate all the crimes in a bulk and at one fell swoop.

THE VALUE OF SELF CONTROL.

By Mrs. J. E. ROBINSON

When can we say our education is finished? We are in one case never through learning. The truly educated eye ever sees new beauties. The mind grasps new truths, struggles with unlooked for problems. The end of education then must be to awaken all the faculties of mind, to develop and an ultimate possibilities of the character of the individual, our nature are in reality threefold mental, physical, and spiritual. The mind should not be trained regardless of the other parts of our nature which are of equal importance and should receive equally the same amount of study and care in their development. We need moral training to meet the temptations which confront us. We may have mental training, but if moral instruction and examples have not accompanied it, of what avail is it, an educated person morally corrupt, will use all their knowledge to a accomplish their evil designs. What we especially need is strength of character. Solomon, the wise King of Israel says "He that ruleth his spirit is mightier than he that taketh a city," and we can never be truly happy or useful until we have learned self control. We feel proud when we have mastered one of the sciences or languages. All may not have this opportunity but its not only the privilege but the duty of each of us to gain a far better victory when we are able to rule our spirits. How can we obtain this victory? By will power, which we all should have and indeed must have if we are to succeed in ruling our spirits, let us begin, if we possess we will come out on a broader plane of living where our peace of mind will be secure because we are no longer controlled by petty annoyances and grievances, we find a spirit within us that will not be over come by difficulties, we will then be more hopeful, we will see the bright side always because we have here to fore schooled ourselves to it, and it has now become second nature to us. If we could believe that every trial disappointment and pain was only given to us to strengthen us, how much happier we would be. Who is it that is welcome in the sick room? It is the bright cheerful person who when patient and freed from hope keeps up courage even in the darkest hour, is able outwardly to show no signs of fear, we may not think it but there will be a time when we will need to have self control, this fortune comes to us all, and how much better if we have already learn of patience and the secret of the optimist who teaches that everything is for the best, if we really in earnest we will find "that the mind can rise superior to every difficulty, when the body is racked with pain, a determination on our part to be patient and not give up to disease will enable us with proper treatment to rally much sooner than one who loses hope at first, though they may obtain the best medical aid. I know that the body influences the mind, but the more we give up to our feeling the weaker our will become until in the end we have no will but are led by our feelings. Do not allow your mind and your will to become so weakened, but rise in strength of your own power and with every effort to rise new strength will be given you always look on the bright side and feel that there never is a cloud but what has a silver lining.

HOUSEHOLD CHAT.

By Miss MELLELA CLEMENT

It is the little things in this world that keep up the worry.

It takes less time to criticize than to do any thing else. There are a great many critics in the insane asylum. Let us do more ourselves and criticize our neighbor less.

The word fitly spoken is like a ples of gold on pictures of silver.

We have organized a "merry company girls society. Some of us have Mrs. prefixed to our name, but we are working in the vine yard in the interest of our young girls, and any one wishing to become a member of this society can do so by subscribing for the Herald.

OPEN LETTER.

S. C. Whitman Replies to Strictures of the Pop Chairman, Dobson.

POPULIST HOUSE CLEANING.

Some Inside History in regard to Reformers That Shows That Self-Appointed Champions of Public Moral May "Smile and Smile and Be Villains Still."

J. B. Dobson—Sir: In the columns of the Oklahoma Representative of August 1 appears a communication bearing your signature, and I am told emanating from "kangaroo" court that was held in Guthrie last Saturday and Monday. In that communication you proceeded to notify the public that I have been read out of the populist party. Now allow me to refer to an agreement that was entered into between you and me last summer, wherein you were to go before the county convention and withdraw your name as a candidate for county clerk and also state that you were going to retire to your farm and attend strictly to farming business. In consideration of your doing this I was to withhold information that I was in possession of that would let the people know what kind of a man you were. Now, J. B. Dobson, you have been carrying high for the last three weeks. You have abandoned the form and sought through one of your old tricks to injure the character and reputation of some of our best citizens, and hence I feel that I am at liberty to unbecome at this time and show up your record.

I shall only go back to the Langston City representative convention of three years ago this summer, where you were nominated for representative. That convention sat down on fusion and nominated you for representative. Soon after that meeting you went to see Mr. Jenkins, the democratic nominee, and agreed for a money consideration to pull off the ticket in his favor. You remember the affidavits that were thrown upon the speakers table when I was speaking at Langston, setting forth the facts in the case, and my speaking to you about it. You said they were lies. Now, sir, nearly three years have expired and you have failed to prosecute Mr. Jenkins and others who published those affidavits.

I now want to call your attention to the charge that you made that there was fraud in Cimarron and Antelope townships at the voting booths and that you employed P. O. Cassidy and myself as attorneys to contest the election of Mr. Wallace. I want to call your attention to the fact that we went to work and subpoenaed the men you cited as witnesses and that a part of them went through an examination, but when asked to answer to the evidence stated that they dared not. Among these men was your own brother. I want to cite you to the fact that P. O. Cassidy and myself told you there was no use going any further, as you had no case on which we could win, because the witnesses had told us that you were only doing this so as to make a bluff and get an appointment in the legislature. Now Messrs. Appleby and Kinglesmith, of Cleveland county, were elected, one in the house and the other in the senate. You went to work and traded off Appleby and had the democratic, Rice, elected, and for this you received $4 a day for sixty days. I want to call your attention to the fact that before this was consummated John Maddox, who married your brother, Charles' daughter, offered to get Messrs. Kinglesmith and Appleby the assistance of yourself in getting their seats, for $80, and they refused.

Now, then, sir, I want to remind you of a little circumstance that happened at Malhall, last summer, at the convention there. You arose in that convention and as chairman of the county central committee, stated that you had made this call because there was no representative or council committee. You stated that you had notified B. R. Tankersley, the chairman of Payne county, of your action and asked him to agree. You tried to force that convention to make a nomination for councilmen on Monday, (the first day of the convention,) in the absence of the whole Payne county delegation.

You stated as reasons for so doing that Tankersley had had the due notice and fail to pay any attention to it. Now, sir, I want to call your attention to the fact that a Payne county man arose before that body of 129 delegates and stated that he had brought you a letter from B. R. Tankersley, asking to have the council convention put over until the next day because the Payne county delegates were holding representative convention at Perkins and could not get there until next day. This man's statement made you caught up and you then and there admitted that you not only had the letter but knew its contents.

Now, it is not necessary for me to say that you were lying so that J. B. Pulliam might take snap judgment on Payne county and secured the nomination for the council for himself. Now, sir, after B. R. Tankersley was nominated on the next day, and J. B. Pulliam turned down by a vote of 96 for Tankersley to 33 for Pulliam you stated that you would make this cost the populist party 100 votes. The vote of Antelope township (your township, I believe) shows that you were able to make the ticket lose about twenty votes. Now, sir, you notify me that I am out of your party. I am the representative of your party in Guthrie last Saturday and Monday and they, most of them, are of the same material as yourself, but have not had an equal show with yourself in getting at the spoils. Allow me to express to you, and the others who met on that occasion, my sincere thanks for informing the public that I was not, nor had not been, a member of your party.

Respectfully yours,
S. C. WHITMAN.
